

Call for papers EUROPEAN ACCOUNTING AND MANAGEMENT REVIEW

The European Accounting and Management Review (EAMR) is a peer-reviewed journal that aims to contribute to the advancement of scientific and technical knowledge in the fields of accounting and management. EAMR articles build on theoretical frameworks and contribute to accounting and management practice using a variety of empirical methods (quantitative, qualitative, field, laboratory, meta-analytic...).

EAMR is published by the Catalan Association of Accounting and Management (Associació Catalana de Comptabilitat i Direcció, ACCID, www.accid.org), an organization founded in 2002 with the purpose of becoming a nexus for professionals and academics working in the field of accounting and management.

EAMR invites authors to submit research papers that address topics related with the quality of financial reporting and its relationship with ethics. The special section wants to address topics like (although not limited to):

- Financial reporting quality and audit
- Corporate governance commitment and business ethics
- Earnings management
- Ethics failures in corporate reporting
- Corporate Social Responsibility
- Disclosure behaviours, quality and ethics
- Social and environmental financial information
- Internal control procedures and regulation

Submissions are due between 1st June and 31st August 2015 and papers will be published by the end of 2015.

Manuscripts should be prepared and submitted in accordance with EAMR guide for authors (http://www.accid.org/eamr/downloads/1/Author_Guidelines_SM_Nov_2014.pdf) and will be subject to EAMR regular double-blind review process.

All submissions should be made through the EAMR online system (<https://mc04.manuscriptcentral.com/eamr>)
